Hamburg, October 16.

'THE Duke of Mecklemburg is gone 'with all his Court to Roſtock, af- 'ter having put off the Aſſembly of 'the Nobility to the 16th of No- 'vember, on which Day they are to meet at Stern- 'berg. His Imperial Majeſty, upon a Suppoſal 'that this Duke ſends his Subjects for demoliſhing 'Witmar, has ſent him an inhibitory Mandate 'thereupon; and at the ſame time, has made a 'Compliment of Thanks to his Britannick Majeſ- 'ty for having oppoſed it. In the mean time, that 'Demolition is not diſcontinued, and is even ſo far 'advanc'd, that according to all Appearance, it 'will be finiſhed by the End of November. The 'ſaid Duke of Mecklemburg has newly given Or- 'ders, that the Ruſſians who are in his Country 'ſhall be furniſhed by his Subjects with Proviſions 'for 15 Days, or be paid a certain Sum of Money 'in lieu of it. From whence ſome conclude, 'that it is in Order to their Departure, the rather, 'in that the Emperour has lately ſent a very ſe- 'vere Mandate to this Duke, upon the Subject of 'the Sojourn of the Ruſſians in his Country; and 'that beſides, the Czar will have Occaſion to ſend 'a good Body of his Troops againſt the Tartar- 'Rebels, who continue to exerciſe great Cruelties 'in his Kingdom of Caſan.

'Baron Gortz has been able to effect nothing in 'the Conferences which he has had at Baruth, no 'body being willing to enter into Negociation with 'him, becauſe he was not furniſh'd with other full 'Powers than thoſe he produc'd in Holland. That 'Baron has made a Tour to Warſaw, from whence 'he will go to Revel, and from thence to Peters- 'burg, to have an Interview with Prince Men- 'zikoff.

'They write from Vienna, that the Imperial 'Court has paſs'd a Reſolution in Favour of the 'Nobility of Mecklemburg, but the Tenor there- 'of is not yet known.

Hague, Oct. 26. 'The Deputies of their High 'Mightineſſes for the Affairs of Finance, having 'reported to the Aſſembly of the States General, 'that in the Examination which they have made, 'conjunctly with the Deputies of the Council of 'ſtate, of the Memorials deliver'd by the Receiver 'of the Generality, they have found that the 'Comptoir of the Generality was much in Arrear, 'for want of the Payment of the Intereſts of the 'Capitals of large Sums of Money lent to certain 'Kings and Provinces under the Guarantie of their 'High Mightineſſes; to the great Prejudice of 'the Finances and Subjects of this State: And 'that it was neceſſary to find out ſome effectual 'Means for procuring the Payment of the ſaid 'Arrears without Delay. Whereupon, after due 'Conſideration, their High Mightineſſes came to 'divers Reſolutions, viz.

1. 'That for the Arrears due from Ghent, Bru- 'ges, and Oſtend, according to the Aſſignments 'given upon thoſe Towns, as alſo for the Capitals 'negociated upon the Revenues of the Poſts of 'the Auſtrian Netherlands, and upon the Prevoſte 'of Mons; the Sieur Peſters ſhall be charg'd by 'repeated Orders, to redouble his Inſtances to the 'Marquis de Prie for obtaining the Payment of the 'ſaid Arrears.

2. 'For what was negociated for the Service of 'the Elector of Bavaria, upon which there was 'on the 3d of September laſt, five Years Intereſt 'due, a Letter ſhall be written to his Electoral 'Highneſs, to repreſent to him the Irregularity of 'his Payment, and to add, that it is not unknown 'to his Highneſs, that their High Mightineſſes 'have out of Friendſhip to him, forborn to put 'to Sale the Jewels mortgag'd for that Debt, altho' 'they have been very much preſs'd to it by thoſe 'who advanc'd the Money upon that Mortgage, '&c.

3. 'With Reſpect to the Arrears of Intereſt upon 'the Monies advanced to the King of Sweden in 'the Year 1702, upon the Security of the Cuſtoms of 'Riga; The Deputies of the Finances are charg'd 'to ſpeak of it to Prince Gallitzin, Ambaſſadour of 'his Czarish Majeſty, [illegible] 'ſaid Cuſtoms; and the ſame [illegible] 'charg'd to talk to the Sieur [illegible] Secretary 'of his Swediſh Majeſty, [illegible] 'tractor of that Debt, [illegible]

4. 'And there being [illegible] 'on the Capital of 500,000 Florins, advanc'd by 'the [illegible] the Circle of Swabia, it was reſolv'd to 'repreſent to that Circle, That their High Migh- 'tineſſes [illegible] 'which have [illegible] 'and occaſions great [illegible] 'reſted therein, to whom the States are Guaran- 'ties. That the Engagements entered into for 'the due Payment of the Intereſt every ſix Months, 'and the Principal at the End of the War, are 'not unknown to the States of that Circle, who 'know alſo, that they are obliged to pay that pre- 'ferably to every thing elſe, and that the Cath- 'of the Circle is bound by Oath to do it, and en- 'his own Eſtate anſwerable for his Performance 'thereof, &c. For theſe Reaſons, their High 'Mightineſſes moſt inſtantly require the Princes 'and States of the ſaid Circle to take Meaſures 'for the ſpeedy Payment of thoſe Arrears; in De- 'fault whereof, their High Mightineſſes cannot 'avoid acting according to the Tenour of the ſaid 'Obligations.

5. 'That two Years Intereſt being in Arrear of 'ſome 100,000 Florins, ſent in the Year 1703 to the E- 'lector Palatine, which his Electoral Highneſs pro- 'miſs'd to pay in June laſt, but has not, it was re- 'ſolved, that by a Letter, the Nature of the Obli- 'gation which the Elector his Brother and Prede- 'ceſſor gave, wherein he mortgag'd not only the 'Revenues and Domains of the Dutchies of Juliers 'and Berg, but alſo divers particular Bailiages, 'and that Power is therein given to the States, to 'make Execution in Default of Payment, &c. ſhall 'be repreſented to his Electoral Highneſs; and 'that in Caſe his Electoral Highneſs does not put 'a ſpeedy End to the Complaints of the Perſons 'who

'who lent the said Money, for which the States 'were Guaranties, they shall be oblig'd to pro-'ceed, &c.

'Three other Resolutions were taken of like 'Nature, upon Arreats due from the Quarter of 'Nimeguen, the Province of Groninguen, and 'the Upper Quarter of Guelderland.
